

FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH of SAINT LOUIS

Women's Alliance Scholarship

April, 2022

The Women's Alliance of the First Unitarian Church of St. Louis is pleased to send you this packet of application materials for its annual Women's Alliance Scholarship. For the 2022-2023 academic year, a stipend of $3,000 will be awarded, half each semester upon evidence of matriculation at an accredited college or university.

This scholarship was initiated by a generous bequest from the estate of Edna Landzettel, a member of the Alliance for many years, a St. Louis public school teacher, and a tireless proponent of the importance of education in a woman's life.

The recipient of this award in 2022-2023 shall be:

- a woman (21 years or older) who is continuing her education or returning to school
- a member or an active friend of an Unitarian Universalist church or fellowship in the greater St. Louis area
- a person with leadership ability scholastic superiority, personal integrity, self-direction, and humanitarian concerns
- a registered student, carrying at least 6 hours of academic credit each term who is aiming for a degree or full certification at an accredited college or university
- evidence of need will also be taken into consideration

An applicant is asked to notify the committee immediately if there is a change in her field of study, so that re-evaluation of the application can be made based on her new chosen direction.

Please note that all application responses, references, and supporting materials must be postmarked by or completed online by June 15, 2022. We may request an interview after that date. All materials should be addressed to:

The Women's Alliance Scholarship Committee
First Unitarian Church
5007 Waterman Blvd.
St. Louis, MO 63108

All applicants will be notified about the committee's decision by July 30, 2022. A public announcement will be made by August 30, 2022.

For your convenience, the next page lists the contents of this packet.

If you have any questions about this application form, please contact the committee at:

Women's Alliance Scholarship

If I am selected as the recipient of the Women's Alliance Scholarship for 2022-2023, I agree to abide by the following stipulations as set forth by the Women's Alliance of the First Unitarian Church of St. Louis:

The award will be given in two installments upon evidence of matriculation at an accredited college or university. One-half of the funds will be granted at the beginning of the first semester and the second half at the beginning of the second semester. If the recipient fails to complete the first semester or chooses not to continue for the second semester, the monies will be forfeited by the recipient and there will be no carry-over of funds for the future. The recipient, however, may reapply for a Women's Alliance Scholarship at a later date.
